

Born in Leningrad in 1948. Studied acting and theater at The Nissan Nativ Studio, and with Jaques Le Coq in Paris. He went on to perform across Europe and the US for a decade.

Since returning to Israel, he worked as an actor at The Habima Theater, Haifa Theater, The Khan Theater among others. He has been performing with The Inbal Pinto and Avshalom Pollak Dance Company since 2001. Zvika has been teaching acting since 1979, and directing fringe pieces. He has created movement for The Haifa Theater, Gesher and The Khan Theater. Fishzon has won awards for direction and play for his piece "Daily Show"

He has been collaborating with Choreographer Talia Beck since 2015, performing in W (2016)